Commission hears remarks of opposition concerning possible sale of county landfill

by Linda Hodge, Editor

The Coffee County Commission found the future of the county landfill to be an issue of concern to many Monday morning, Nov. 26, during the regular bi-monthly meeting of the commission.

Comments concerning the landfill began with the return of a former Coffee County Engineer.

Mark Pool, the county engineer at the time the Coffee County Landfill was built, addressed the commission by expressing some concerns he has in regards to the county selling the landfill.

Pool began his remarks by telling commission members that several years ago, he told the then current commission that landfills were going to change, and he felt like the county needed to get some options so it would not be at the mercy of waste management.

He said it was at that point that the county began looking at building the landfill, and Coffee County was eventually one of the first counties to receive a SubTitle D Landfill Permit.

"BFI has now opened their landfill in Brundidge, and I understand ya'll (commissioners) are all worried about a little competition," said Pool. "I don't understand this."

Explaining his position, Pool said the Coffee County Landfill has some of the lowest tipping fees in America, one of the best landfills in America and one of the best locations.

He said he feels if the commissioners vote to sell the landfill, they will be making a short term decision, and they need to be looking at the long term.

"You may have to change the way you do business, but you don't have to sell out," Pool said.

Another thing Pool said is, "bothering him concerning the possible sale of the landfill is that he remembers when the landfill was built that there was a promise to the people in the northern end of the county that the landfill would never be sold. This remark was echoed by Coffee County citizen Mack Westbrook, who also addressed the commission during the Monday morning meeting.

In his remarks, Westbrook spoke of how the people of the Northwest part of the county fought the building of the landfill for two years. He said they were promised by the commission at that time that the landfill would never be sold. Also, he said the citizens in that part of the county have concerns about the volume of out-of-county waste that will be brought to the landfill.

Pool finished his remarks by telling commissioners that he feels they need to slow down and make a long term decision instead of a short term decision.

Enterprise Council Member Kenneth Boswell also briefly addressed the commission Monday morning on behalf of Enterprise Mayor Tim Alford concerning the landfill.

Boswell assured the commission that neither he nor Mayor Alford were criticizing the commission for its decision, but they do have concerns for the landfill.

However, he said as a representative for a city in the county, he was requesting that the commission take into consideration, during its negotiations the long term cost of disposal fees for the city and county.

Councilmember Tom Grimsley assured Boswell that the cities within the county would be taken care of during any negotiations.

Sean Barnes, a paramedic and CPR instructor, addressed the commission in regards to obtaining automatic emergency defibrillators (AED's) for the sheriff's department. Barnes spoke during the meeting on behalf of an idea presented to him by his colleague Greg Gainey.

Barnes said it is his understanding that the Coffee County Sheriff's Department currently has three cars that carry an AED at all times.

"We would like to see all cars in the county with AED's and all city deputies trained on the usage," he said.

Barnes said he and Gainey would be willing to help the County BOE holds special meeting, Nov. 15

The Coffee County Board of Education met in special session on Thursday, Nov. 15, and quickly zipped through the items on the agenda.

The first item of business involved a decision made by the board during an April 15, 1999 meeting where board members voted to donate a piece of land for the Fairview Water Tower.

Superintendent Dr. Linda Ingram told board members that they officially needed to vote to authorize the chairman to execute the deed to the property. With a motion and second on the table, the board voted unanimously to give board chairman Charles Walker authorization to execute the deed to the property.

The next item on the agenda was a request made by the superintendent to allow her to accept the low bid on two mixers to be purchased for the Child Nutrition Program (CNP).

The board voted at its last regular meeting to accept bids on two 60-gallon mixers that will be used at New Brockton and Zion Chapel.

During the Thursday evening meeting, Ingram said the bids would not be opened until later in the month, and since the board would not have a meeting during the month of December, she was requesting the board allow her to accept the low bid. She said this would allow adequate time for the CNP workers to be properly trained in regards to the use of the mixers before school resumes after the Christmas holidays. This request also was unanimously approved by the board.

In other business, the board:

- * Accepted the resignation of William McGill as an alternative education aide and coach at New Brockton High School.
- * Upon the request of the Coffee County Training Center, approved the donation of an unused portable at New Brockton to the training center. The portable will be moved during the Christmas holidays, and board members agreed that they certainly had no problem donating the portable to the training center as long as it was understood that the move of the facility would be of no cost to the school system.

The next regularly scheduled meeting of the Coffee County Board of Education will be January 2002.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL BRINGS SMILES. It was not hard to find a smile on the square in Elba last Saturday, Nov. 24, during the 14th Annual Elba Christmas Festival. There was lots of fun for the whole family during the day long event that began at 9 a.m. and continued with the annual Christmas Parade and Elba All-Star Lighting Ceremony in the evening. The holiday cheer was definitely in the air as the event symbolized the official beginning of the holiday season in Elba. Lori Smith, Leona Siler, Marshall Horstead and Loreta Smith are shown above enjoying the festivities along with Loreta's daughters, Travia and Mond Martin. Don't miss next week's edition of The Elba Clipper as scenes from the Christmas Festival and Parade will be highlighted.

Cash Brothers plans to revolutionize storage industry

The Wiregrass area is the center of a new and innovative service-oriented business that promises to revolutionize the storage industry.

Cash Brothers Leasing in Elba has developed and manufactures the Mobile Attic, a portable storage unit designed to be delivered directly to the consumer. In addition, the Mobile Attic comes with all of the necessary boxes and packing supplies as requested by the customer. Once packed, Mobile Attic personnel relocate the storage unit to a secure facility. There are no trucks to rent, to load and unload or to drive. Mobile attic reintroduces a luxury of a bygone era: curb service.

The Mobile Attic is owned by Cash Brothers Leasing and National Security Group Incorporated of Elba, and has its manufacturing, distribution and marketing centers in Elba, Dothan and Enterprise respectively. The manufacturing center in Elba currently employs 25 workers and expects to hire 25 more in the next two weeks. As the demand for the portable storage units increases over the next two years, up to 300 Wiregrass workers could be employed in the production and distribution aspects of the Mobile Attic business.

Located in Dothan, Logistic Services of Alabama is the distribution center for Mobile Attic, warehousing all of the packing supplies and distributing them to dealers nationwide.

"These supplies are procured through local businesses in the area," said Gary Weeks, distribution and operations manager. "We're wanting to use Wiregrass-based companies, when possible, for all the products. The idea is to enhance local businesses by employing their products and services."

The Mobile Attic is also an excellent opportunity for the entrepreneur. With five dealerships currently open, the marketing center in Enterprise is working to bring the total to 100 dealerships around the country in the next two years.

"The portable storage market is evolving, and with no national competitors, Mobile Attic sees significant opportunities for growth in the Wiregrass area and nationwide," said Betsy Harris, Mobile Attic spokesperson. "By combining the convenience of a storage unit with the luxury of actual curb service, Mobile Attic addresses the need for storage space in a new and unique way."

The Mobile Attic is proud to have its roots in the Wiregrass. "It never ceases to amaze me how entrepreneurs in our community continue to revolutionize and enhance our economy," said Matt Parker, president of the Dothan Area Chamber of Commerce. "We applaud the efforts of Cash Brothers Leasing for opening The Mobile Attic. This innovative business will bring more jobs, wealth and opportunity to our region."

As demonstrated above, the Mobile Attic can be an efficient mode of storage for items of many different sizes.

The war in Afghanistan, as does most wars, has taken some weird turns. This past weekend some captured Taliban soldier supposedly staged a riot, or continuation of their battles. Like some folks, they had been taken prisoner, put into some sort of building holding nothing but war prisoners and started an armed rebellion. Now we are not just talking about knives and homemade zip guns, these folks had grenade launchers and multiple grenades, plus thousands of rifle bullets and rifles to shoot them from. As a six year old child, we knew to search our captured prisoners for hidden sling shots or other weapons - but concealed rifles and grenade launchers - wait a minute folks!

The Alabama Legislature will be back in the second special session of the year before another issue of this newspaper is printed. The continuing education funding shortfall continues to dominate any and all plans to move Alabama forward. Apparently the vast majority of the voters are demanding a solution out of the politicians. Two things prompt that opinion. One is the tone of our mail, e-mail, and fax machine fodder. We see calls for taxing "correctors" on big business as the leading command from most directions with the Business Council and Republican office holders voicing criticism of the idea. The Business Council seems to be saying "Don't care our ox" while the Republicans are just against anything supported by Democratic Governor Don Siegelman and/or the Democratic lawmakers. . . . politics. Governor Siegelman has taken such a strong position for additional education funds that he reportedly publically told a vocally critical (Republican) lawmaker in Birmingham to "vote for something else." Now for a politician to do that, he is either awfully dumb or awfully smart to the prevailing winds of Alabama politics. . . . and Siegelman has never been accused of being dumb!

We have been testing the wind directions on this issue for several months but still don't know what will happen next month. What we can safely predict is that the upcoming elections of 2002 will definitely tangle this web into greater confusion. Look for the powerful lobbyist to be out in force opposing additional taxes on their particular part of the world. But as one learned participant said, "The most effective lobbyist to counter those high paid folks would be an army of parents and children standing on the steps as the legislators walked in the doors of the statehouse." Even the harshest, meanest, ugliest politicians are savvy enough not to challenge the innocent love radiating from the eyes of a small child.

The Elba Christmas Festival went off last Saturday without the cold rainy conditions which so often accompany such events which are scheduled this time of the year. Many of those who were present for the parade that evening expressed positive thoughts about the number and quality of the participating units. To those who put forth the effort, we say thanks, and hope others will also express the same sentiments to each of you. To those who missed the events throughout the day, as well as the parade, it was your loss but you can try to catch-up next year.

We have had some much needed rain in the last week, along with some destructive tornadoes. One of those twisters hit downtown Daleville about midnight Saturday. Fortunately there were no deaths in this area, even though there were some in other counties. As far as the severity of the damage, those who suffered the destruction think they got all that they needed and more! We join them in a prayer of Thanksgiving for sparing lives!

Thanksgiving went over well around our house. The big day was spent with our daughter, her husband and some of his family. . . . and entirely too much good food. Sunday our three children and their families came to Elba for a day with us. Well. The granddaughter was here Saturday and Sunday! Of course Hedy does most of the work, but even with the extra work, neither of us would have had it any other way - unless maybe if they had stayed longer. It is amazing how we aim for the day when they will be standing on their own two feet and then yearn for them to return to the next for those oh-so short visits home.

EDITORIAL

Holiday season hits full speed as Christmas nears

by Linda Hodge, Editor

I must report on the Thanksgiving dinner I cooked last Thursday. Several people have inquired about how it all went, and I have to admit that I surprised myself. The biggest surprise of the day was the fact that I pretty well kept the kitchen area clean the whole time I was cooking. This was definitely an improvement for me, and it made for a much better day when after we finished eating there wasn't a whole lot of work left to be done. I loaded the dishwasher with our dinner plates, put up the leftovers, wiped the countertops and table, and ventured to the living room for a bit of rest. I knew the day had been a bit of a success when my dad's reaction to the dinner was, "Linda, you're your mother's daughter so I knew you had it in you. We just had to find it!" This whole cooking thing wasn't so bad after all, but I don't think I'm ready for an every week kind of thing yet and I'm thankful that it will be a whole year before I have to worry with Thanksgiving dinner again! Then on Saturday, I moved completely from the Thanksgiving mode to the Christmas shopping season. I was definitely a bit of a mess when the Elba Chamber of Commerce held its annual Christmas Festival, Parade and Lighting Ceremony. Although the All-Star Lighting Ceremony was burned due to bad weather conditions, the day appeared to be a huge success. There is a lot of work to be done. I loaded the dishwasher with our dinner plates, put up the leftovers, wiped the countertops and table, and ventured to the living room for a bit of rest. I knew the day had been a bit of a success when my dad's reaction to the dinner was, "Linda, you're your mother's daughter so I knew you had it in you. We just had to find it!" This whole cooking thing wasn't so bad after all, but I don't think I'm ready for an every week kind of thing yet and I'm excited about the Christmas festivities in Elba on Saturday put me in the mood to do a bit of shopping as my sister and I headed to Dothan Sunday afternoon. There was no doubt that the Christmas shopping season has arrived as the stores were extremely busy. I did manage to get a couple of Christmas gifts on Sunday, but mostly I did a lot of looking. I get a lot of pleasure out of giving gifts, but I also like to wait just as long as I can before spending my money on those gifts. You know, some say that I'm so tight I squeak when I walk and I guess they are right. Although things have slowed down a bit this week, other than putting up the Christmas decorations at home, I am already preparing myself for other splendid events to be held this holiday season. I look forward to the people of the area during this holiday season, but they are events that promise a lot of fun and I hope everyone comes out and takes advantage of the holiday cheer.

Also, the Elba Chamber of Commerce has another Christmas event coming up as bugs ride will be traveling through a magical Christmas forest on Forest Lake Drive, on Saturday, Dec. 8, from 5-8 p.m. These events are probably only the tip of the iceberg of the many events that will be offered to the people of the area during this holiday season, but they are events that promise a lot of fun and I hope everyone comes out and takes advantage of the holiday cheer. After all, the holidays are about family, friends and fun, and there is nothing more important in life than being with family and friends and making the best of it with lots of fun. Believe me, I know every day life can be very busy with not much extra time left for fun, but if we play our cards right, we can make room for a bit of fun this holiday season and possibly have the best Christmas ever.

Jessica Brunson with the many medals and awards she has won.

Brunson to compete in gymnastics championships

Jessica Brunson, of Elba, will be competing in the Alabama State Gymnastics Championships to be held at the Ozark Civic Center this weekend, Nov. 30 - Dec. 2. Some 400 girls, levels 4-5 and 6, will be competing in this event. The Enterprise Aerials, with whom Jessica competes, are the host team for the second year in a row.

Eight-year-old Jessica, daughter of Tim and Annette Brunson, is a first grader at Zion Chapel Elementary School. This is her first year of competing with the Aerials and she competes in the Level 4 division. She has placed high in a number of competitions recently and won the Veterans Day 2001 Level 4 event in Birmingham. She posted a score of 9 on the Vault, 9.250 on the Bars, 8.700 on the Beam, 8.9 on Floor and a 35.850 overall.

In other events Jessica has posted a 9.1 on the Vault and 8.750 on the Beam. In addition to winning first place in one event, Jessica came within one-tenth of a point of winning a second event and less than half of a point of winning first place in two other events. The Level four team, on which she competes is undefeated thus far this season. An aside on the Birmingham event is that it was hosted by Elba native Joel Inman and his Gymnastics Academy.

Christmas in the Forest set for Saturday, Dec. 8, in Elba.

The Elba Chamber of Commerce will sponsor buggy rides through a magical "Christmas in the Forest" in the Forest Lake Subdivision on Saturday, Dec. 8, from 5-8 p.m. The Chamber, along with the neighbors, will turn the neighborhood into a Christmas Wonderland. The residents will depict Christmas scenes in their yards along with carolers who will be entertaining the buggy riders as they pass by during their journey through the forest. At the end of the street, refreshments will be served as the riders wait to catch the next buggy. Family photos will be available as a memento of this fun-filled event. Tickets are available at the Chamber office, The Briar Patch and Denise's Hair and Nail Salon.

Fruit tree planting time arrives in Coffee County

by Richard Petcher
County Extension Agent

It is the time of year to be seriously thinking about your fruit trees. Selecting the correct variety for this area is seventy percent of your success in fruit production. Planting your fruit trees at the correct time is another major key to your success. Often people will wait until late winter to plant their fruit trees. However, they will do much better if planted in November. Trees planted in November have a 95% success rate while in December 85%, January 75%, February 65% and March 55%.

How you plant and water are very important, but planting early in the winter will give you an added edge in having a successful orchard establishment. I would like to list the fruit trees that will grow in Coffee County and a few of the recommended varieties.

A few of the best peach varieties for Coffee County are June Gold, June Prince, Harvester and Loring. There are some 50 recommended peach varieties for southern Alabama, which I have at the Extension office. This list was too extensive to list here.

The apple varieties require a cross pollinating red type with a yellow type of apple. The red types are Brodgen and Anna. The yellow types are Dorsett, Granny Smith, Ein Sheimer and Cauley. The New Zealand type of apples, Gala and Fuji work well here and are delicious.

The recommended pear varieties for this area are Warren Orient, Korean Giant, Bladwin, Pineapple, Kieffer and Moon Glow. The Asian pears, Skinko and Hosui, do well here, also. However, the Asian pear is susceptible to fire blight.

The recommended blackberry varieties for this area are Choctaw, Shawnee, Kiowa and two new thornless blackberry varieties, Navaho and Annapolis. Raspberries also do well here. Latham, Southland and Dorman are the recommended varieties.

Three of the top producing blueberry varieties for this area are Climax (very early), Tifblue, Powder Blue, Premier and Brightwell (early varieties), and Centurion which is a late bearer. The top producing plum varieties are Methley, AU Producer, Homestead, AU Cherry, AU Roadside, AU Rosa, AU Rusum, Morris, Ruby Sweet and Black Ruby.

Standard fig trees that are still the best for this area are Eastern Brown Turkey, everbearing and Celeste, LSU Gold, LSU Purple and Alma, which is one of the best.

The muscadines that do the best are Summit, Frye, Higgins, Black Beauty, and Black Frye which are all female types and require cross pollination with a perfect type such as Carlos, Coward, Noble, Magnolia, Magdon, Southland and Neshito. The best strawberry varieties for this area are Early Glow and All Star. There are quite a number of other varieties that are also good. Chandler is the best variety for black plastic production.

THE PRESSBOX

By Ricky Mularg, Sports Editor

Now that the holiday season has officially started, the annual argument at the Mularg house about buying a Christmas tree is underway. We usually head out to Wise's tree farm the Sunday after Thanksgiving and let the girls pick out a tree. However, Mom has been fighting for years to buy an artificial tree that won't shed and doesn't need watering, and this year there has been no winner declared in the battle. No matter who wins, I betcha we have some kind of tree up by this time next week.

SPORTING THROUGH THE NOTES...

 The Elba Tigers will open their basketball season this week with games at Georgiana and Straught, and hopes are high over at Tigertown that the Tigers are headed for a big season. On paper the Tigers do appear solid in every area, but the football playoffs resulted in some bumps and bruises to some key players, and it may take a while for this year's team to get rolling. I hate to put any pressure on Coach Bledsoe, but I also agree that this should be a big year for the Elba Tigers.

 I made it down to the Kinston tournament twice last week and saw some pretty good basketball. The Bulldogs have all the tools to become a very good 1A club real soon, while the Lady Bulldogs showed vast improvement from a year ago and there is no doubt they will get some wins. Kinston's success on the football field and on the volleyball court gave the student body a shot of confidence, and it looks like that success should carry over to the basketball court as well.

 The New Brockton Lady Gamecocks are off to a 3-1 start and placed second last week in the New Brockton Thanksgiving Tournament. The Lady Gamecocks have already posted wins over such basketball powers as Pleasant Home and Geneva, and could very well be headed for another big season. The Lady Gamecocks have quickness, deadly outside shooting and a strong inside game, and those three things should lead the way.

 The college football world was turned upside down last weekend with Nebraska and Oklahoma both losing to fall out of the Big 12 championship game, and while it certainly set the table for a possible Miami-Florida shoot-out in the Rose Bowl, it should also quiet some of the sportscasters that had been so vocal in declaring the Big 12 the top conference in the nation. Hey, when the top team in the conference gives up 62 points that says a lot about the conference, and I don't mean about any kind of balance.

 The state football playoffs enter semifinals action this week and for the true high school football fan there are some games that stir the blood. Lineville and Leroy will tangle in the top 2A contest, while Pike County will host Tarrant in 3A. T.R. Miller and UMS-Wright will go to war in Mobile. Briarwood will travel to Benjamin Russell in 5A, and Hoover and Huffman will both bring 13-0 records into their 6A clash. There is still plenty of good high school football to be seen, and I may even try and sneak off myself and watch a game.

 Last week's third round action was exciting, but not one to remember for some of the area teams. Houston County saw its undefeated season come to an abrupt end via 32-3 loss to Lineville, while Dale County was wiped out by T.R. Miller 34-7. Pike County did keep its late-season surge going with a 14-12 win over defending state champ Aliceville, but that was just about it locally.

 Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator e-mailed this week's picks in over the computer. The local gossip hit on 18 of 24 picks last week to move his season totals to 354-67, and made the following predictions for the state semifinals. (Class 1A) Reeltown 25, Maplesville 20, Courtland 27, Notasulga 8, (Class 2A) Leroy 15, Lineville 12, Gordo 29, Pickens County 28, (Class 3A) Tarrant 20, Pike County 16, Hokes Bluff 14, Colbert County 10, (Class 4A) UMS-Wright 24, T.R. Miller 21, North Jackson 17, Claiborne County 16, (Class 5A) Benjamin Russell 17, Briarwood 14, Homewood 21, Russellville 3, (Class 6A) Daphne 21, Auburn 14, Hoover 27, Huffman 17.

Seven win season gets Elba Tigers back on track in 3A football

The Elba Tigers began their trek back to the top of the Class 3A football circles this season, and while their season ended with a second round loss in the state playoffs, the Tigers posted a 7-5 record and made it clear to every opponent on their schedule that the Tigers were indeed back.

"We started working toward the 2001 season the Monday after the final game of the 2000 season," said Tiger head coach Mike Waters, "and this group of players came together as a team and sacrificed to help turn the program around. Everything we accomplished this season was because of the pride and dedication shown by the players, coaches and Elba Tiger supporters. It was a team effort, a school effort and a community effort, and hopefully it set the tone for many more years of winning and unity here in Elba."

Following is a brief recap of the 2001 season:

ELBA 33
ZION CHAPEL 8

The Elba Tigers opened the season a week early with a big 33-8 jamboree win over the Zion Chapel Rebels, before a packed house at historic Miller Memorial Stadium. The first ever meeting between the two county rivals was much anticipated, however, the Tigers jumped out to a 27-0 halftime bulge and then turned things over to the junior high Tigers to mop up the exciting win. The Tigers' tailback trio of Todd Horstead, Quinton Moultry and Dougie Pierson combined for 233 yards and 4 touchdowns in the win.

STRAUGHT 14
ELBA 0

The Elba Tigers dropped their sixth straight season opener in a 14-0 setback to the Straught Tigers, in Straught. The Elba offense managed only 2 first downs and 31 yards in total offense in the loss, and even though the Tiger defense kept the game close, the offense simply never got on track. Leading the Tiger defense was Jason Curran and Marcus Henderson with 6 tackles, each.

SAMSON 21

The Elba Tigers grabbed their first win of the regular season by outscoring Samson 35-21, in Samson. The Tigers jumped out to a 21-7 third quarter lead and led 28-14 in the final stanza, but could never rest and had to score late on a 80-yard kickoff return by Todd Horstead to ice the wild win. Horstead gained 68 yards on 11 carries and scored 2 touchdowns to lead the Tigers in the road win.

LUVERNE 26
ELBA 14

The Elba Tigers spotted Luvorne a 20-0 halftime advantage and saw a gallant second half rally fall just short as the Tigers dropped to 1-2 on the season with a 26-14 loss in Luvorne. The Tigers rallied from the 20-0 deficit to pull within 20-14 with 6:08 remaining in the game on touchdowns by Brandon Petty and Marcus Henderson, but saw the rally come up short in a tough road loss. Todd Horstead gained 151 yards on 13 carries and Dougie Pierson added 34 yards on 11 carries to lead the Tigers.

ELBA 21
OPP 7

The Elba Tigers evened their record at 2-2 with a big 21-7 win over the Opp Bobcats, in Elba. The two long time rivals were tied at 7-7 at halftime, but the Tigers moved on top on a 22-yard dash by Dougie Pierson and then put the game away when Pierson scored from 5 yards out late in the final stanza. Dougie Pierson gained 182 yards on 21 carries and scored 2 touchdowns in the win.

ELBA 20

The Elba Tigers spotted 2A power Highland Home a 10-0 fourth quarter advantage and saw a late rally fall short in a 10-7 loss, in Elba. A 75-yard touchdown run by Todd Horstead with 9:08 left in the game got the Tigers close. However, that was as close as the Tigers could get, as they fell 10-7 and saw their record slip to 3-3.

ELBA 26
W.S. NEAL 22

The Elba Tigers grabbed a huge region win with a heart-stopping 26-22 win over the W.S. Neal Blue Eagles, in East Brewton. The Tigers fell behind early and trailed 22-20 late in the game, only to regain possession at the Neal 39-yardline with 1:11 left on the clock on a fumble recovery by Michael Reed. Elba pulled out the win on a 29-yard touchdown pass from Brandon Petty to Todd Horstead with only 22 ticks left on the clock! Brandon Petty hit on 5 of 10 passes for 114 yards and 2 touchdowns to lead the Tigers.

WASHINGTON CO. 26

The Elba Tigers improved their region record to 3-1, and moved to 5-3 on the season with an exciting 30-26 win over Washington County, in Elba. The Tigers fell behind 13-0 early in the game, but reeled off 22 straight points to move on top 22-13, and then held on late to survive with the 30-26 win. The Tiger trio of Todd Horstead, Quinton Moultry and Dougie Pierson combined for 197 yards and 3 touchdowns.

ELBA 42
GULF SHORES 14

The Elba Tigers gave a large homecoming crowd plenty to cheer about as they blasted the Gulf Shores Dolphins 42-14, in Elba. TRINITY 51
ELBA 6

The Elba Tigers closed out the regular season with a 51-6 loss to Trinity, in Montgomery. The Tigers trailed 23-0 at the half, and needed a late touchdown on an 11-yard run by Dougie Pierson to avoid the shut-out. Elba managed only 85 yards in total offense, while Trinity rolled up 467 yards in the win.

ELBA 27
ST. CLAIR 12
